TO every lover of the reds, whites and roans we ask that a careful study of Imp. Orangeman be made from every angle. Many of the leading breeders have pronounced him one of the best Imported bulls in America. His breeder Wm. Anderson, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, is rated as second only to Wm. Duthie among the Great Britian breeders and both his sire and grandsire were bred by Wm. Duthie the "King of Shorthorn Breeders."

Imp. Orangeman combines the three requirements which constitute a good herd bull — he is a good individual, he has an excellent pedigree, and best of all he is siring outstanding calves. A calf of his or a cow bred to him would be a good addition to any herd.
